

CttP! presents
The Hazi Bros.
"KANT STUDIES" (LP)
 (CttP!01)

THE HAZI ['ha:zi, Hungarian for house, home-made] BROS. are a remarkable band: Founded in Hungary in 2006, they rejected the brought-into-line music business and toured Germany, Hungary, Latvia, Serbia, Czech Republic independently, still releasing two albums during the time. Off the beaten tracks and being a steady part of the Budapest, Riga and Berlin underground for years, they gathered a remarkable international following. Now their 3rd album is getting released: KANT STUDIES. And their two earlier albums are being taken care of by CttP! as well.

In the band's own words, "After so many concerts in the past three years we finally recorded our 3rd album – an LP. KANT STUDIES deals with the questions the philosopher never paid enough attention to: women, love, lust as philosophical categories including links to other ones. An indispensable set of songs for sexually active philosophers (!) and the perfect x-mas present for exactly them – Culture to the People!"

Aside from the countries the band has toured, THE HAZI BROS. have strong followings in the U.S., France, The Netherlands and the Scandinavian countries. Fans and colleagues are tirelessly praising the songs' atmosphere, the unique band sound and the charismatic (mostly English) lyrics.

Aside from older ones, the songs of the album will be played at the KANT STUDIES Record Release Party on Dec 4, 2014 at 8 p.m. in Berlin at HAUS DER SINNE (Ystader Str.10, 10437 Berlin). Tickets are 8/5€.
